THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS FEELING VERY COMFORTABLE, THANK YOU.

Paw Paw.

Election passed off quietly in Paw Paw, a hundred less votes being polled than in the spring election of a year ago. It was a republican day, and the democrat workers had a hopeless strug-gle against the flood of opposing ballots from the time the polls opened until they closed. Good, round majorities were accorded every republican candidate except for justice of the peace, for which office Wm. H. Mason, democrat, was chosen, but he owes his election to republican votes and republican voters. Forty names were added to and 64 Had the republicans voted their tickets names were taken from the township straight (and none know a good reason register by the board of registration for not doing so) the party could easily have made a clean sweep. The result on the state ticket, where local prejudices and local sympathies did not enter into the contest, shows clearly and fairly the relative strength of the various parties in Paw Paw tomnship. Both precincts gave republican majorities.

Following is the vote in detail, republican candidates being the first named on the state ticket, democrat Miss Dunlap is back from the city fourth; on the local ticket republican with a fine line of new millinery goods and union votes appear in the order
